

Objective

Whether you're a total Beginner, "So-So" or a bit of an expert yourself, I've got something I can offer to your martial arts training.

Together, we can either work to build a foundation, or build upon your existing foundation - regardless, get ready for personal growth!

Profile

I've been training formally in the Martial Art of Jujitsu since 1987, and teaching others to develop and hone their own combat skills since 1993.

In addition to investing my time training other high-caliber athletes, I am committed to serving my community and region whenever the opportunity arises.

I strive to bring both my sport AND the athletes I train the attention they deserve!
